South America

IT'S NOT JUST ANY PATH

It's your shot at retracing the steps of National Geographic explorer Hiram Bingham, on his way in 1911 to rediscovering the lost city of the Inca, Machu Picchu. The time is always right to make your own history in South America. Imagine standing in the monumental shadow of Christ the Redeemer in Rio, feeling the thunder and mist of Iguassu Falls alongside a local botanist, or dancing at a late-night tango joint in Buenos Aires. Go south with National Geographic Journeys.

Machu Picchu & The Amazon | 10 days | From $2,699

Iconic Peru | 14 days | From $3,599

Explore Argentina & Brazil | 8 days | From $2,699

Central America

IT'S NOT JUST A
WALK IN THE WOODS

It's your time to see the Santa Elena Cloud Forest through the eyes of the National Geographic-supported researchers who work and live there, and get your hands dirty with them as part of their reforestation efforts. This lush corner of our planet begs to be experienced. Imagine meeting sea turtles in Belize, soaking in hot springs at the foot of an active volcano in Costa Rica, or attending a Mayan tree-planting ceremony in Guatemala. Central America is perfect for National Geographic Journeys.

Explore Costa Rica | 14 days | From $2,249

Natural Highlights of Costa Rica | 9 days | From $1,599

EUROPE

IT'S NOT JUST A DAY AT THE BEACH

It's your turn to photograph the otherworldly black-sand beaches on the southern coast of Iceland, a country National Geographic Traveler called "a geology class... without the textbooks." Europe's rich past makes it ideal for modern-day explorers. Imagine strolling along the old city walls of Dubrovnik, navigating the ruins of ancient Pompeii with an archaeologist, or enjoying a beer at a 400-year-old brewery in the Czech Republic. It's all prime territory for National Geographic Journeys.

Explore Iceland | 7 days | From $3,199

Discover the Balkans | 12 days | From $3,299

Explore Central Europe | 9 days | From $2,499

Iconic Italy | 14 days | From $4,099

North Africa and the Middle East

IT'S NOT JUST A CITY TOUR

It's your exceptional opportunity to visit the landmarks of Old Jerusalem accompanied by two guides – one Israeli and one Palestinian – on a walking excursion designed by National Geographic Emerging Explorer Aziz Abu Sarah. North Africa and the Middle East are full of exceptional moments. Imagine taking a mud bath in the Dead Sea, riding over the dunes of the Sahara in Morocco on a 4x4, or exploring mysterious Petra, Jordan – so many ways to experience National Geographic Journeys.

Israel and Beyond | 8 days | From $2,499

Morocco Journey | 9 days | From $1,799

IMAGINE

changing the world simply by meeting its people

National Geographic Journeys deliver the ideal blend of must-see highlights, hands-on exploration, free time, and opportunities to forge true, human connections – with the people we visit, as well as those we meet along the way.

● CHANGE THE WORLD

Travel with us and you help fund G Adventures' community development initiatives. You also support National Geographic Society's non-profit work in conservation, research, and exploration.

● LEARN ALL YOU CAN

Every tour includes opportunities to learn about our world through unique interactive experiences with local experts, like marine biologists, sommeliers, Buddhist monks, and others.

● RIDE THIS WAY

There are few better ways to really connect with a destination than by riding through it on transport you can't find at home. Here's to a tuk tuk, river boat, or camel ride you'll remember forever.

● UNIQUE ACCOMMODATIONS

Ever thought of spending the night in a Jordanian desert camp? Maybe a converted fort in India? Whenever possible, our accommodations reflect the unique character of the places we visit.

● YOUR LOCAL GUIDE

Every trip comes with its own local CEO (Chief Experience Officer). Unique perspective, insider access, and local knowledge about where to explore or dine are always at hand.
